A message from us...

What a great couple of weeks leading up to half term and now for a well deserved break!

We are really proud of our Hawks class for their performance for Harvest and all children for creating a beautiful Autumn display board for church.

Thank you also to everyone who donated food for Coalville Foodbank.

We hope you have an amazing half term break!

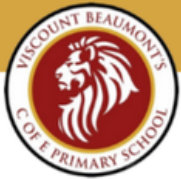

Please can we ensure...

Please can we ensure that all payments have been made for upcoming trips by October 31st

If you have any questions on this please do not hesitate to let us know.

also...

Please make sure all uniform and bottles are clearly labelled and each child brings a coat into school. The weather is starting to change and these may need to be worn whilst outside.
